

OCC Takes Part in 2017 Women's Energy Summit

June 22, 2017

Consumer Counsel Elin Katz and Associate Rate Specialist Taren O'Connor attended the fourth annual Women's Energy Summit on September 18th and 19th in Chicago, Illinois. The event is held each year to bring together women in the energy industry and provide a platform to explore relevant topics and have meaningful discussion around energy and leadership.

Nearly 200 people were in attendance to listen to panels of speakers from across the energy sector discuss topics that highlighted leadership in the industry and tackled issues like gender diversity, women in operational roles and women on corporate boards.

Taren O'Connor was named a 2017 Rising Star and attended the Rising Star Forum on September 18th, where she and seventeen others from across the country were able to meet some phenomenal leaders in the business, listen to inspiring speakers, and network. Discussions were focused around self-branding, setting goals, building a strong network and being an influential leader.

The Women's Energy Summit proved to be a valuable and informative event that OCC hopes to participate in in the coming years.
